THE HOOK

Ghosts of kids who were murdered by predators visit an ordinary mom. She thinks they simply need her help, but they soon reveal their true mission—to save her from a predator in her midst.

LOGLINE

In this MEDIUM meets DIRTY JOHN meets GHOST WHISPERER scripted drama, an ordinary mom is visited by spirits of murdered children with a message for her: she could be next. After getting the attention of an NYPD detective, she sets off to help these broken families get answers and heal – but can she save herself?

KIERSTEN'S WHY

Kiersten is an average, science-minded woman who didn't grow up believing in intuition or life after death. She only believed in what she could see and touch. That is, until she turned 36. Today, at the age of 48, she's still the least "woo woo" person you'll meet, despite her mediumship skills. She wrote Little Voices in order to help skeptics and domestic violence survivors open their minds to the possibility that intuition is real. And she hopes that if they learn to recognize, value and use their own intuitive gifts, they can heal old wounds and create the life they want to live.

"KIERSTEN IS EXTREMELY LOGICAL AND FACT-DRIVEN. THE MOST AMAZING PART...IS THAT SHE WASN'T LOOKING FOR ANY OF WHAT HAS HAPPENED TO HER... IT SIMPLY FOUND HER."
